Intertextile exhibition series for apparel fabrics

Dear exhibitors,

We have recently been alerted that some of our exhibitors have been contacted by phone or fax by other exhibition companies offering exhibition booths at the 2010 series of Intertextile Apparel Fabrics fairs. In view of this, the organisers of the Intertextile exhibition series for apparel fabrics hereby makes the following statements:

1. Intertextile Beijing Apparel Fabrics and Intertextile Shanghai Apparel Fabrics are jointly organised by the Sub-Council of Textile Industry, CCPIT-Text, Messe Frankfurt (HK) Ltd (MFHK), and China Textile Information Centre (CTIC).

The Intertextile Pavilion at Shenzhen is jointly organised by the Sub-Council of Textile Industry, CCPIT-Text, Messe Frankfurt (HK) Ltd (MFHK), and Shenzhen Garment Industry Association.

The above exhibitions are held three times a year in Beijing, Shenzhen and Shanghai respectively at regular intervals. All three exhibitions belong to the Intertextile exhibition series and their respective logos are:

2. The organisers have never authorised any local Chinese exhibition company to handle exhibition canvassing, except for country pavilions, and certain pavilions formed by textile associations or provincial governments. Any exhibition invitation issued without prior authorization by the organisers should be considered fraudulent, and any offer to process an exhibition booth application or booth allocation is invalid.

3. Intertextile Beijing Apparel Fabrics will be held at the China International Exhibition Centre, Beijing, from 30 March to 1 April 2010.
